

SURFACE DIAMOND DRILLING JOB POSTING

General Requirements

The Diamond Drill Operator shall effect and monitor the activities of a diamond drill operation in a productive manner that is safe for self, others and the environment. The Diamond Drill Operator is directly responsible to the Diamond Drill Supervisor.

Duties and Responsibilities

1. Effect activities of a productive and cost-efficient diamond drill operation
2. Use personal protective equipment and safety devices as required
3. Work in a manner that will not endanger self, others or the environment
4. Be aware of and follow all applicable legislation and safe work procedures
5. Correct or otherwise warn other workers and report known unsafe conditions or work practices to Diamond Drill Supervisor
6. Communicate clearly with Diamond Drill Helper, cross-shift crew and the Diamond Drill Supervisor
7. Share ways of improving health and safety at the worksite
8. Be familiar with developed Emergency Response Plans and know how to operate communication equipment

On a daily basis, the Diamond Drill Operator will;

- Complete a pre-operational checklist for the drill at the start of every shift
- Operate drill safely during shift using company procedures suited for drilling conditions to optimize core recovery and production
- Ensure core recovered during shift for delivery to the client is well-placed, labeled and uncontaminated
- Effect moves, set-ups and tear-downs of drill sites in a safe and efficient manner within acceptable environmental standards
- Assist with the extension, monitoring and picking-up of waterlines
- Reclaim drill, camp and storage sites upon dismantling set-ups with environmental standards ensuring the removal of all equipment, materials and waste
- Oversee the Diamond Drill Helper to ensure that his/her duties are completed safely and thoroughly
- Complete 'drilling report' fully and accurately at the end of shift
- Complete 'bit report' fully and accurately
- Attend to basic maintenance of equipment at drill and camp sites
- Ensure equipment, tools, spare-parts and materials are properly stored and drill site is neat and orderly
- Advise Diamond Drill Supervisor of inadequate inventories of consumables at drill site
- Keep living quarters and camp clean, tidy and free of garbage

On a weekly basis;

- Attend toolbox safety meetings

SURFACE DIAMOND DRILLING JOB POSTING

As required, the Diamond Drill Operator will;

- Always wear prescribed PPE and familiarize self with and adopt the HSE program
- Provide guidance and instruction to new and inexperienced Diamond Drill Helpers
- Correct, lockout and/or otherwise report any equipment, condition or method of work that may be considered dangerous or hazardous
- Report all injuries and serious incidents to the Diamond Drill Supervisor
- Conduct personnel carriers or other company vehicles with care and only with the authorization of the Diamond Drill Supervisor in a reasonable manner and at a suitable speed for the conditions
- Respond to emergencies using developed Emergency Response Plans
- Attend general safety meetings and training

Qualifications

The Diamond Drill Operator will:

- Demonstrate successful completion and recertification, as required of the following training;
 1. Common Core for Surface Diamond Driller Skills - Runner level (Program #P770200)
 2. Propane Training - PTI Course # 400-01 Connection and Use of Construction Heaters up to 400,000 BTUH
 3. St. John Ambulance or equivalent - Standard, Level-C First Aid
 4. Fall Arrest Training on SRL equipment
 5. Lockout Training
 6. WHMIS
- Demonstrate a positive personal attitude and good communication skills with co-workers, supervisors and client representatives
- Conduct self within the high standard of behaviour expected from a representative of (company)

Successful Candidates must pass the Pre-Employment “Fit for work” Program.

Email cover letters, resumes and MTCU Training Records to

Accounting@wahgoshigresources.com